

Education

Ann Smolders, 1965, attained a licentiate in law at the KU Leuven and a master in management at the UCL-IAG.

Career

She started her career in 1989 at PwC in Belgium where she became a member of the board of directors in 2000 and was appointed as partner in 2005.

Ann Smolders has acquired more than 30 years of experience in several financial matters with a specialisation in mergers & acquisitions and the valuation of companies.

During her career at PwC she exercised several executive positions and acquired a large experience in the real estate sector in Belgium and in an international context. She was for 4 years responsible for the management of the PwC real estate team and the further development of its activities.

Ann Smolders is a visiting lecturer at KU Leuven, member of the executive committee of ULI Belgium (2014-2020) and attends the INSEAD training 'International Directors Programme'.